12/4/18

Extra Credit

Choose a group to represent for Ballot prototype

Voting Design for people w/ limitation in mobility.

The design of the screen & the table or "tablet" where people make their selection can be modular. This means, you can move the screen up & down & the "tablet" where you make your selections can be also moved up & down but also can get deattached so people that can't move their arms, can put the tablet in their lap or move it to where they need it.